Brief Report

Our college student visit to Mahabaleshwar and Pratapgadh the main object this visit is

1. To build the confidence in interact with outside
2. To make awareness in student about environment.
3. to aware about flora and fauna.

Mahabaleshwar is a hill station in India's forested Western Ghats range, south of Mumbai. It features several elevated viewing points, such as Arthur's Seat. West of here is centuries-old Pratapgad Fort, perched atop a mountain spur. East, Lingmala Waterfall tumbles off a sheer cliff. Colorful boats dot Venna Lake, while 5 rivers meet at Panch Ganga Temple to the north.

Pratapgad is a mountain fort located in Satara district, in the Western Indian state of Maharashtra. The fort is situated 24 kilometres from the Mahabaleshwar hill station. The fort is now a popular tourist destination.

We visit to Pratapgadh and history of Pratapgadh Fort is a veritable bastion of Maratha bravery and craftsmanship. It was built in 1656 by the talented architect Hiroji Indulkar and Prime Minister Moropant Pingle on the directions of Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. It marks the site of Shivaji's famous win over Afzal Khan in the Battle of Pratapgadh. Afzal Khan's tomb is located nearby (can be seen from the Fort) as an act of respect by Shivaji.

We also visit to Mahabaleshwar see their 5 holy rivers Krishna, Venna, Koyana, Savitri and Gayatri starts from here called as "Panchganga Temple". Mahabaleshwar is famous for its Strawberry. Also Mahabaleshwar, essentials include farm fresh strawberries and raspberries that the town is known for.

We thankful to our Principal can give permission for that field visit.
